Back To School
As our schools re-open after the Summer holidays we wish all our staff & pupils every Blessing as they begin another school year.
We think especially of those starting school for the first time & all those who are beginning in a new school.
Thank God for the safety of the Summer!

New or Renovated Church of the Blessed Sacrament:
You Decide!
Following on from the recent open meeting on June 22; the Parish Project Support Group will host an ‘Open Day’ at the Parish Centre on next Sunday 10 September 12.15 - 5pm.

The plans for the proposed renovation & the proposed new Church of the Blessed Sacrament will each be on display and Parishioners will have the opportunity to clarify any queries or concerns.
Parishioners can register their intention to vote and receive their ballot papers during the course of that day or alternatively, they can register to vote at the Parish Office between Monday 11– Friday 15 September.
All Parishioners over 16 years of age, registered & living in the Parish or anyone who regularly subscribes to the Parish is eligible to vote!

All votes should be returned to the Parish on or before Sunday 17 September. The result of the ballot will be announced at Masses on Sunday 24 September.
