New or Renovated Church of the Blessed Sacrament: You Decide!

Following on from the recent open meeting on June 22; the Parish Project Support Group will host an ‘Open Day’ at the Parish Centre on this Sunday 10 September 12.15 - 5pm.

The plans for the proposed renovation & the proposed new Church of the Blessed Sacrament will each be on display and Parishioners will have the opportunity to clarify any queries or concerns. Parishioners can register their intention to vote and receive their ballot papers during the course of that day or alternatively, they can register to vote at the Parish Office between Monday 11– Friday 15 September. All Parishioners over 16 years of age, registered & living in the Parish or anyone who regularly subscribes to the Parish is eligible to vote!

All votes should be returned to the Parish on or before Sunday 17 September. The result of the ballot will be announced at Masses on Sunday 24 September.
Parish Christmas Card

A Christmas card, depicting the Old Cross, from an original painting by Eithne Quinn goes on sale this weekend. They are available from the Sacristy, Ardboe Gift Centre, Costcutters, Forbes Spar, Kellys, & McConvilles Nisa at £1 each.
