The Singing Priests in St Patrick’s Cathedral, Armagh to celebrate “Red Wednesday”
“Aid to the Church in need” invites us to join on Wednesday 22nd
November to light up our Churches and wear something red as we remember Christian martyrs and those who have died for their faith. On the Wednesday, St Patrick’s Cathedral, Armagh will be a blaze of red and people are asked to wear something red (a sweater, a cardigan, a jacket, a scarf or a tie) as a symbolic reminder of all those Christians who have suffered and died for their Christian faith over the years.
Archbishop Eamon Martin will lead a special Prayer Vigil in St Patrick’s Cathedral on Tuesday at 8.30pm on the eve of Red Wednesday.

As part of the Vigil, people will have an opportunity to venerate and be blessed by special Relics of St Dymphna and St Oliver Plunkett, both of whom died for their faith.
