November Dead List

In order that we can start recording the names from the dead lists into the Book of Remembrance.

Can we ask you this year to use your own writing paper & envelopes due to Covid-19.

Completed lists & offerings should be placed in a sealed envelope and returned to the Parish Office or Parochial House.

November Sick Calls – Covid-19

Due to government guidelines and the safety of parishioners.

Fr Sean will now attend the sick and housebound the week commencing 16th November

Monday 16th November – Mullinahoe Area

Tuesday 17th & Wednesday 18th November – Moortown Area

Anyone shielding or those who would still prefer a telephone call instead of Fr Sean calling to the house, please contact the parish office and leave your name and contact number.

Face Mask/Covering

Face Masks/Coverings must be worn in Church unless you have a medical condition. These measures are to protect you and others in our community and help everyone feel safe and comfortable in their surroundings.

COVID Notice

Due to the increase of cases in the area, we ask that if you or a family member have any COVID symptoms, even mild ones, or if there is a chance you have been in close contact with anyone who has tested positive that you remain at home and not attend any Masses. We remind you that all our Masses are live-streamed and thank you for your support at this time.

Important Information for the Parish

As Parish Priest, I want to pass on to you the directives I have received from Archbishop Eamon Martin, on behalf of the Catholic Church in Ireland. Due to the increased rise in Coronavirus, the following norms are now in place in the Archdiocese of Armagh until further notice, effective immediately.

Funerals

Funerals will be limited to 25 people.

Weddings

Wedding ceremonies will be limited to 25 people.

Baptisms

We are now able to welcome babies for baptism. Only one baby will be baptised at a time and family members will be restricted to 10. Please contact the Parish Office to book your child's Baptism.

We welcome into the Christian community
