COVID NOTICE

The pandemic virus is still very active in our community.
We must ask everyone to please adhere to the regulations we have in place in our churches. We ask everyone to sanitise entering & exiting the church, wear a face mask at all times in the church and respect social distancing regulations.

We want all who use the Churches to feel safe and protected.
We ask that if you or a family member have any COVID symptoms, even mild ones, or if there is a chance you have been in close contact with anyone who has tested positive that you remain at home and not attend any Masses.

We remind you that all Masses are live-streamed and the Sunday obligation for Mass is still lifted for all. I thank you for your understanding through these times. Fr Sean

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

Eucharistic Ministers

It is a great privilege for Ministers of the Eucharist to serve the Spiritual nourishment of our parish community. The commitment to prayerfully prepare for Communion, to be available at least once a month and attend the appropriate training.

Parish participation in the Universal Synod – How to take part

Pope Francis recently introduced the theme of the 2023 Synod of Bishops – For a Synodal Church: Communion, Participation, Mission.

Every diocese in the world has been asked to take part in preparing for the synod. This involves the largest consultation with the Catholic lay faithful ever to take place. The universal consultation is the beginning of a national and local process where over the next few years we are invited to reflect on and discuss what the Church in Ireland and in our diocese may look like in the future.

For now, we are being asked to think about what life is like in the Church at this moment in time and to answer four questions;

You can take part by completing a paper questionnaire that will be available in our churches and parish office. It is also available to complete online

<https://forms.gle/sF2diqjQt1Jdq74UA>

Your responses should be anonymous and returned in the envelope provided to the parish office or posted to

The Universal Synod, c/o The Diocesan Office, Ara Coeli, Armagh, by Monday, January 31st
